World Atlas* wins Best Atlas award!

On Saturday 25th June, 2010, World Atlas, published by Millennium House, was announced as 'Best Atlas' at the IMTA (Asia–Pacific) Conference held in Melbourne, Australia.

Entries were judged by an independent jury of cartographers. Cartographic products from the Asia –Pacific region were entered into the awards, with World Atlas taking the most coveted award of Best Atlas and then the Best Overall Winner. This accolade establishes World Atlas as the best atlas in the Asia–Pacific region for 2010.

Damien Demaj, chief cartographer for World Atlas, accepted the award on behalf of the Australian publishing company, Millennium House. Millennium House is both thrilled and honored to receive this award. The distinguished endorsement acknowledges all those who contributed to the creation of this atlas.

Millennium House engaged a team of international cartographers, oceanographers and geographers to research and produce the maps, covering 194 countries. World Atlas contains 216 super-sized (550 x 434 mm) pages of award-winning cartography and information.

This most recent recognition by the IMTA (Asia–Pacific) adds to the list of awards received by Millennium House for cartographic excellence. Managing Director Gordon Cheers is thrilled with this honor awarded to the latest addition to the EARTH suite of titles, which is headed by the limited edition EARTH, the tour de force of the cartographic collection. Our cartographic awards include:

- Limited edition EARTH—voted Best World Atlas at the 24th International Cartographic Conference 2009 in Santiago, Chile
- Limited edition EARTH—received the Gold Award for Book-Based Product and the prestigious Graham Stanton Award for Best Overall Map Product at the 2009 IMTA (Asia–Pacific) Conference and Trade Show
- EARTH Concise—won Best Book-Based Product at the 2008 IMTA (Asia–Pacific) Conference and Trade Show
